'We are delighted that LPP S.A, one of the most significant European Fashion Retailers entering the Croatian market in 2014., recognised and selected Westgate Shopping City for one of their first store openings in Croatia', said Natasa Ivana Dorotic, Managing Director of Dornativa C&S who introduced LPP S.A. and advised the Landlord on the leasing side.

'With LPP S.A. on board our Client gains a variety of five brilliant and modern family to young fashion brands, addressing shoppers of both genders and all age brackets all further increasing the attractiveness of the Westgate Tenant Mix and offer and underlining the regional positioning of this well established shopping destination.

LPP S.A. joins Westgate, a landmark shopping centre for Croatia and the region, anchor of a growing future retail zone and currently home to over 240 retailers trading on 90.000 sqm of shopping centre GLA since November 2009.'

Dornativa C&S are acting as leasing agents to Westgate Shopping City and are currently in discussions with a number of international brands entering Croatia.
